Forces Horse in Water Hole;
Drowns Before Comrades
Can Reach Him.

Sierra Blanca, Tex., June 5.—Troop colors of the 15th cavalry are draped with black, the flag is at half mast and one more name has been added to the list of honored dead on the muster roll of troop B.

Private Thomas Vandenhoeve, troop B, was drowned in a large tank Thursday afternoon at 4:30 while attempting to make his mount swim through the water. The horse plunged into the water, throwing him into the water and kicking him as he fell. The tank was filled with 15 feet of water and the body of the trooper was not recovered until an hour later.

SCHOOL OF MINES OPENS ON SEPT. 23

El Paso School of Mines will open on September 23d. The first catalog of the local mining school has been issued by Dr. S. H. Worrell, dean of the school, and it is being distributed throughout the state and the southwest. The catalog announces the courses of study, gives pictures of the buildings of the school and of the El Paso smelting works and the officers of the school. It also announces that the El Paso tin mines have been placed in charge of the faculty of the school and will be utilized by the students in the studying of mining at first hand.

GIRL'S FATHER, ANGRY, ATTACKS REPORTER AND IS ARRESTED

Chicago, Ill., June 5.—Mark Morton, his are aroused by the publicity given a grinning trip of his daughter Helen to Virginia, was accused Thursday of attacking a newspaper reporter, blinding his hands and then wrenching an automobile containing his prisoner against a fence post.

The reporter lodged a charge of assault against him. The attack is said to have been caused by an attempt to gain an interview in which Morton charged the reporter with trespass.

After her trip to Virginia, Miss Helen Morton was quoted as saying that Chicago was "not a very nice place" and that she did not wish to be married, but to associate for a time with real men and enjoy herself in the riding of horses. She returned to Chicago this week "under an armistice," she said.

WOMAN IDENTIFIES "MAN OF MYSTERY" AS HER OWN SON

Chicago, Ill., June 5.—The man of mystery, who has been known only as "J. C. R.", by officials of the Oak Park infirmary and by hospital attendants at Rush hospital, who he was escaped, was identified as Earl W. Ties, a mining engineer, who has been missing since 1909.

The identification was made by Ties' mother, Mrs. H. E. Pitkin, of this city, and the proof was considered complete when the man revealed an obscure scar of a cut on his right foot, which he suffered when a boy.

Ties showed feeble signs of recognition, although his vocal chords have long been paralyzed and he was unable to speak.

"The man of mystery" was found unconscious on the streets here last November. He was unable to speak, but wrote the initials "J. C. R." and at times, "J. H. H."

PAT TICKETS IN BIBLE; MISS TRIN AS RESULT

Too much faith in their Bible caused two followers of a religious sect in Chicago to miss their trains for the west Thursday at the union station. The two men, their hair worn long in the back and bobbed across the forehead, arrived here from Chicago en route to Los Angeles. They stopped off here for the day and then picked up their tickets in their Bible for safe keeping. When they started to enter the train enclosure they had neither tickets nor Bible. They finally found their good book with the tickets intact, after searching the station from ceiling to cellar.

LITTLE HOPE ENTERTAINED FOR RECOVERY OF BOY

The condition of George Smith, the 9 year old boy who fell from a tree in East El Paso Wednesday afternoon, is not improved, and the doctors have little hope that the boy will recover. He was climbing to the top of a cottonwood tree on Alameda avenue for a bird nest when he fell to the ground and sustained a severe concussion of the brain.

Two, 150 Miles Apart, Talk on Wireless Phone

Paris, France, June 5.—By means of a wireless telephone apparatus, invented by two naval officers, Commander Victor Collin and Lieutenant Jeanne, conversations were carried on Thursday over a distance of 150 miles. The words came with greater distinctness, it is said, than is customary even over a telephone connected by wire.

REFUGEES HARBOR DREAD OF REBELS

New York, June 5.—Still bearing the dread of Villa in their hearts, 250 refugees, mainly Spaniards, arrived Thursday from Veracruz and Puerto Mexico. Most of them came from Saltillo and Torreon. They brought tales of terrible hardships and suffering. Without exception, they had lost their property and their money. They were, for the most part, merchants who had remained neutral in the Mexican internal conflict, but had fled when their lives were threatened. The fear of Villa was still in the hearts of the bedraggled lot.

AMUSEMENTS.

A NOVELTY IN PICTURES.

Another selection for the Wigwag's splendid masterpiece service will be shown at that theater today. It is the "Port of Doom," a Famous Players company's production in which Laura Sawyer is seen in her original role of "Kate Kirby," and House Peters plays the male lead. The picture was produced with that carefulness of detail which marks all of Dan Frohman's productions and is filled to overflowing with novelties and original settings. Nearly all of the action is on shipboard, and the scenes embrace a mutiny; a sinking ship; a tug chasing a sailing vessel which is under full sail, etc. The Famous Players company is the one which produced the Mary Pickford photoplays, "The Prisoner of Zenda," "Queen Elizabeth," etc. All of its productions are high class. There will be no advance in price.

"The Phantom Creek," the first of the original "Fantomas" series will be exhibited tomorrow. This is one of the Wigwag's Saturday thrillers.

Sunday a special booking of "Monogram and Master," a strong drama in which Francis X. Bushman is featured. Mr. Bushman is the actor who defeated King Baggott, Warren Kerrigan, Maurice Costello, Carlyle Blackwell, Crane Wilbur and Arthur Johnson by popular vote in the leading theaters of the United States. He will soon appear as the hero in the story to be published in "The Ladies World." This is the publication that ran "What Happened to Mary," the original serial which was reproduced in moving pictures.—Advertisement.

THE HIJOL.

Carlyle Blackwell in "The Prince on the Throne," a two-act drama production of merit, will be on the program at the Bijou today. This play was laid in the land of big pine in the northwest and contains much to commend it.

Saturday—"Johanna, the Barbarian," a Vitagraph feature, and two Biograph comedies will be a good Saturday program.

Coming—"The Queen's Jewel," successor to "Fanny," which for dates on this—out of the greatest pieces of its kind ever produced.—Advertisement.
